
Journal of the
SANITARY ENGINEERING DIVISION
Proceedings of the American Society of Civil Engineers

SANITARY ENGINEERING DIVISION, COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATIONS
Ross E. McKinney, Chairman; Arthur D. Caster, Executive Committee
Contact Member; Paul W. Reed, Newsletter Editor.

CONTENTS

June, 1956

Papers

	Number
The Federal Air Pollution Research Program by Arthur C. Stern	998
A New Approach to Trickling Filter Design by William T. Ingram	999
Waste Disposal as Related to Site Selection by Arthur E. Gorman	1000
Meteorology as Related to Reactor Site Selection by Fred D. White and Donald H. Pack	1001
Use of Soil Lysimeters in Waste Water Reclamation Studies by Gerald T. Orlob and Robert G. Butler	1002
Discussion	1003
Engineering Job Opportunities in World Health by Hershel Engler	1012
Advances in Sewerage in the Period from October 1, 1954 to December 1, 1955: Progress Report of the Committee of the Sanitary Engineering Division on Sewerage and Sewage Treatment	1013

(Over)

CONTENTS

	Number
Investigation of Planned Refuse Collection and Disposal: SED Research Report No. 7, Sanitary Engineering Research Com- mittee and Garbage Section	1014
The 1954 Drought and Its Effect on Ground Water by Garrett A. Muilenburg	1016

DIVISION ACTIVITIES

Newsletter	1956-14
----------------------	---------